OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Veto of the Civil Rights Bill to be Sustained---Senator Stewart's Position---He supports the President's Policy---The Question of Suffrage to be left to the States---The Radicals to effect by Constitutional Amendments the objects of the Vetoed Bill---Negro Suffrage abandoned as a Political Issue---Passage of the Tennessee Resolution doubtful.

WASHINGTON, March 25.

The opinion gathers strength that the President's veto of the Civil Rights bill will be sustained in the Senate, to which body it will be communicated to-morrow or next day. We hear of no one of the eighteen Senators who sustained the veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill who is likely to give way. Mr. Dixon's absence reduces the number to seventeen. The loss of one man would not be serious, but a change of two votes would give the Radicals a triumph over the President, and lead to the most disastrous results. It is well, to-day, that Senator Stewart, of Nevada, who was one of the eighteen, will stand firm, though his opposition to the Freedmen's Bureau bill has not been approved by the Legislature of his State. A resolution approving of his vote was rejected in the Nevada Senate by a vote of fifteen to one. He was elected as a Republican, and has not given his support to the President's policy of restoration. He wishes to go ahead of the President, and his proposition for an adjustment was intended to bring about a complete restoration of Southern representation and a general amnesty by the 4th of July next. The Senate may refer his resolutions, but they will never probably get out of the bog of the Reconstruction Committee. If they reported the resolutions it would be after striking out the amnesty and representation, and leave it to the South to say whether it will voluntarily extend the suffrage to the blacks on the same terms as to the whites or not.

But if the veto be sustained the Radicals threaten that the eleven Southern States shall be excluded from representation until the vetoed bill, if it be unconstitutional, shall be made constitutional by amendments, not to the bill, but to the Constitution.

Senator Sherman, in his campaign speech in Connecticut, stated that a majority of the Union party in Congress was opposed to the scheme for forcing negro suffrage upon the States, and that a constitutional amendment for that object would not be ratified by the Northern States. Thus it appears that the Republicans have abandoned negro suffrage, as a political issue, in Connecticut, in Pennsylvania, and in Ohio, and they will do so in every debateable State.

The Construction Committee will report the recommitted Tennessee resolutions as soon as they shall be reached on their calendar, and they will be brought to a vote. Though entirely unacceptable to the conservative members and to the President, and even to the State of Tennessee, they will still be resisted by the Radicals, and their passage is doubtful. They must go to the President, and will consequently be vetoed, on account of the assumption that Tennessee is out of the Union, and must be admitted by Congress as a new State. KAPPA.

Proceedings in Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 26.

SENATE.—Mr. Sumner rose to a question of privilege, and moved to amend the journal by striking out the vote of Mr. Stockton in the question of his seat. As the motion was of some importance, he said, he had reduced it to writing.

Mr. Saulsbury made a point of order that the resolution cannot be entertained, as the journal was correct.

The Chair—The resolution must first be read before the point of order can be decided.

The Secretary read the motion of Mr. Sumner, as follows:

Resolved, That the journal of Friday be amended by striking out the vote of Mr. Stockton on the question of his seat in the Senate.

The Chair decided that the resolution was in order, whereupon Mr. Sumner made a speech in advocacy of the proposition, and quoted from ancient and modern authorities to sustain his position that Mr. Stockton could not act as judge and party in his own case.

Mr. Johnson replied, contending that Mr. Stockton, in voting, represented the State of New Jersey, and not himself, and that being a member of the Senate there was nothing to prevent him from voting.

Mr. Trumbull, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, said that in the consideration of a right to a seat of the Senator from New Jersey, he had regarded it, and the committee to which it was referred had regarded it, as a judicial question. It was a question of law whether the Senator from New Jersey was entitled to his seat or not. In the opinion of the committee he was entitled to it, and that he was and still is is his opinion.

The Senate refused, by a vote of 18 to 22, to refer the matter again to the Judiciary Committee.

The question is still pending.

HOUSE.—The House took up the resolution offered by Mr. Rogers, of New Jersey, last Monday, declaring against the repudiation of the Federal debt and declaring in favor of equal taxation.

Mr. Rogers advocated his resolutions in a speech, which consumed the morning hour.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The Supreme Court has decided that shares in National Banks are taxable by State authority.

There was a large crowd present at the Senate to-day, expecting a veto of the civil rights bill, but it will not be sent in until to-morrow or perhaps Wednesday.

Senator Foote still lies in a very critical condition.

"Pap, I planted some potatoes in our garden," said one of the smart youths of this generation to his father, "and what do you suppose came up?"

"Why, potatoes, of course." "No, sirree!—There came up a drove of hogs and ate them all."

Why is John Morrissey, since his retirement from the prize ring, like Daniel Webster? Because he is the great ex-pounder.

IMPORTANT SALE.

THE subscriber, as the administrator with the will annexed of the late John S. Brown of Pitt county, offers for sale,

Seventeen hundred and sixty Acres of land on Swift Creek, in Pitt county: There are 200 acres of the land cleared, with comfortable building. 700 acres of the tract is well set, with the finest Cypress in the State. The balance of the tract is high Pinewoods land, well set with pitch pine, and offers the finest facility for making turpentine and tar, of any in the eastern part of the State.

This body of land lies in a thickly settled and thriving section of Pitt county and is offered for sale under the provisions of the will of my said testator. I am authorized to do so and will sell the same at private sale, if I can do so.

ALSO, 100 acres of Piney land, on the North side of Tar River, adjoining the lands of Wm. Shivers and others.

Unless these lands are sold previously, I will offer them for sale at public auction, at the Court House door, in Greenville, Pitt County, on Tuesday, of next May County Court, being the 8th. day of the month.

A liberal credit will be given, which will be made known on the day of sale.

Any person wishing to purchase privately can communicate with me by letter or otherwise, at Greenville, Pitt County, N. C.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadership and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. No letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL. SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Thursday, March 29, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 0
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

First of April.

On this day, we shall reluctantly discontinue the Sentinel to all who have not paid. We do not do this because we doubt the integrity of any one, or because we think our friends will not pay us, but we are compelled to this course from sheer necessity. Every thing we use we are compelled to pay the cash for; hence, we are obliged to do business strictly on the cash principle, after the 31st day of the present month.

We find that, from haste or other causes, errors have occurred on our mail books. In all cases we are glad to rectify errors. If any error occurs, write us at once, and we will correct it promptly.

Explanation.

For several days, owing to the breaking of two wheels of our press, we have not been able to forward our Western mail promptly. The difficulty has been removed, and now our subscribers west of Raleigh may look for the Sentinel promptly.

The Friends.

We have heretofore, upon information obtained casually, felt ourselves fully justified in denying the charge which has recently been put afloat and endorsed, by at least one press in the State, that the Friends or Quakers are emigrating from the State, being forced or induced to do so, because of the persecutions they are subjected to from other citizens of the State, on account of their peace or Union principles. We were confident it was a falsehood of the whole cloth.

Through the politeness of Gov. Worth, we are permitted to lay before our readers a letter from A. M. Tomlinson, of Randolph, than whom there is not a more intelligent, respectable and reliable gentleman connected with the Society of Friends in the State, in reply to a letter from Gov. Worth enquiring into the alleged persecution of the Quakers. It will be seen that the letter is prompt and to the point.

BUSH HILL, Randolph Co.,
the 27th of 3rd month, 1866.

Gov. Jonathan Worth:

DEAR FRIEND:—I am acquainted with nearly all the Friends residing in Guilford, Randolph and Davidson counties, and I have heard of no persecution or ill-treatment whatever, and there have but very few removed since the close of the war, and none from oppression that I know of. There have some two or three companies of people removed out of the above said counties, but there was but very few, if any, Friends among them.

I am, with much respect,
A. M. TOMLINSON

The Freedmen.

We are pleased to learn, that in many neighborhoods in the several Counties, the Freedmen are doing well, fulfilling their contracts better than was expected. This, we learn, is true in Caswell, Warren, and in some cases in this County. If this were universally true, we would rejoice.

The only source of difficulty which we apprehend from the changed condition of the blacks, is in their indisposition or refusal to work, and by consequence their idleness and certain resort to stealing as a means of living. No one is inclined to deprive the negro of his just claims.—We find the same disposition to regard the claims of colored laborers, as of white laborers. Whenever the black shows a disposition to labor and provide for himself and family, there is a desire to assist him. But where he is idle and insolent, claiming or stealing what is not justly his due in all respects, a conflict begins. It is for this reason that we desire the negro should be made directly amenable to the civil law, instead of leaving him to the jurisdiction of a tribunal, which, more or less of necessity, is partial to the negro and incredulous of the integrity and justice of the whites towards them.

The Courts.

The machinery of our civil Court system is in motion, and is working well. The County Courts of the State are all by this period organized, and the civil offices of the State are filled. Our Judges are now upon their Circuits holding the Superior Courts. They are all men learned in the law, of sworn integrity, possessed of the sympathies of humanity, and alive to its interests and claims. They will be "a terror to evil doers, and a praise to them that do well."

But one impediment lies in their way to the due administration of law and justice, and that is the anomalous condition of the freedmen.—But we rely upon the good sense and prudence of the Judges, to avoid all grounds of collision with the military authorities.

The Supreme Court will assemble in June, when our Judiciary system will be working completely. We shall have thus far been clothed in our former habiliments, with the single exception that at present our representatives are excluded from the Halls of Congress.

For the restoration of these prerogatives of the State, we are indebted to the wisdom and clemency of President Johnson and his devotion to the Constitution. But for the unfortunate prejudices of the majority of Congress, every barrier might be speedily removed to perfect restoration and mutual confidence.

The bodies of soldiers buried on the field of Shiloh are being re-interred.

Editorial Chit-Chat.

—— It is highly probable that the President sent in to Congress, on yesterday, a veto of the obnoxious Civil Rights Bill. If so, we shall doubtless learn the fact before we go to press. He may defer it until to-day, however, as the ten days which he is allowed to retain it only expire with this day,—the two intervening Sundays since his reception of it counting as dies non. That he will veto it seems to be universally conceded, and, as in the case of the Freedmen's Bureau bill, he will give unanswerable reasons for so doing, and overthrow its supporters with irresistible Constitutional logic.

—— The Richmond Times, referring to Gen. D. H. Hill's proposal to publish a monthly magazine, with the charmingly suggestive title of "The Land we Love," remarks: "That that grim old veteran, having laid aside the sword, now proposes to lead the life of a literary man, and give to the public sketches of incidents and scenes during our late struggle, reports of famous battles, personal anecdotes, etc. Besides this, it will contain other literary contributions, general intelligence, and agricultural information. It cannot fail, with General HILL's talent and energy devoted to it, to be a most interesting work." —— "If he writes as well as he fights, the patrons of his magazine will have no cause of complaint." As soon as the enterprize shall have gotten under way, we hope that Gen. Hill will give us an accurate sketch of the struggle on the mountain top near Boonsboro', where he commanded the meagre Confederate force that opposed Gen. McClellan's advance. We regard that as one of the most remarkable fights on record, and, as such, it is worthy of a place in the annals of military history.

—— It is stated that Gov. Fenton, of New York, has declined to make a requisition on Gov. Worth for the rendition of a fugitive from justice, on the ground that he cannot recognize North Carolina as a State in the Union. This Gov. Fenton belongs to the "strait sect" Radicals, who always held, during the war, that the States of the South were not out of the Union, and that its people were only "contumacious" rebels to rightful authority. Now, practically, he recognizes the right of a State to secede. Meanwhile, the criminal, whoever he may be, goes unwhipt of justice.

—— The New York papers state that people in that city, who have neglected to hire houses at the exorbitant rates heretofore demanded, will profit by their backwardness. The tumble in gold is bringing landlords to their senses.—These journals further predict that, by next fall, rents will be reasonable enough, in view of the business stringency which promises to prevail all summer.

—— We are fast coming to the conclusion that the old boy is not altogether so "black as he is painted." We alluded, on yesterday, to a recent most commendable sentiment uttered by Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts. We find, today, in the Philadelphia papers, a late sensible speech by Henry Ward Beecher, in the course of which he says:

"The North had but little to arrogate to herself as to the humanity towards the colored race, and were more prejudiced against them than the Southern people. He would not believe skulkers of the South; but if a man who had fought in the rebellion would tell him he had accepted the issue, he would take his word for it."

True and just, every word of it. These men, who have been heretofore properly classed among the arch agitators of the North, put to shame, by their present course, the infamous conduct of those persons and presses in our own midst, who are clamoring for the punishment of, and falsely charging disloyalty upon, their own people!

—— The London Times, in an article on American affairs, says of the people of the Northern States:—"They fought for the Union, and now that they have obtained it, a large party seems disposed to reject the very object of the contest." No juster criticism was ever offered. This sentence exhibits in a nut shell the real condition of the dominant party in the North, which, carried on by the momentum it acquired during the war, cannot control itself—cannot stop its headlong career—and, if not controlled and guided by a steady, skillful and courageous hand, will plunge the country into a worse condition than that from which it was rescued. Fortunately for the country, President Johnson possesses that courage, and does not hesitate to press his policy by the utmost display of vigor and resolution.

The South, having thus far made every concession that was demanded of it, can now do nothing that we can see, except to plant itself on the Constitution and our rights under it, and await the overthrow of Radicalism.—Whether it will expire at the ballot-box, or will go out in blood, is a question for the people of the North and for the future!

—— An old ecclesiastical maxim precisely conveys the spirit which, in the present hour, should govern the friends of the President and of the Union, North and South:

In things essential, unity;
In things non-essential, liberty;
In all things, charity.

The Case of Senator Stockton.

There were two very mean things done a day or two ago. Mr. Morrill had agreed to pair with Senator Wright upon the Stockton case, and chose to vote in spite of his pair. Stockton, who was to be cheated out of his seat by this trick, voted for himself, and thereupon the Republican papers publish him as keeping his seat with his own vote. A dirty trick and a dirty falsehood came over the wires together.

Mr. Morrill seems to have about the average Black-Republican idea of honesty. When he paired with Mr. Wright, he could, under no pretense, recall his pair.

Mr. Wright had a vested interest in the honor of Mr. Morrill, which Mr. Morrill could not destroy by giving him notice that Morrill had no honor.

So the Radical papers show that they have about the same notions of truth that Morrill has of good faith. Stockton's vote was not given to secure his seat but to prevent a fraud.

Mr. Seward, in a late speech, asserted that men were more intelligent and virtuous now than in 1787.

Fancy Fisher Ames, or Henry Clay, or Daniel Webster called out to vote, in spite of a pair.—N. Y. World.

For good, hard, practical common sense commend us to the "Old North State" forever. If it is true that when RIP VAN WINKLE emigrated from New York, after his celebrated nap in the Kaatskill Mountains, he again fell asleep in North Carolina, he certainly waked up during the late civil war, and has been atoning for lost time ever since.

Since the termination of the war, the Legislature and the people of that State have exhibited most excellent judgment. Their Legislature adjourned a few days ago, and a brief notice of the principal laws passed by that body, will show how much more fortunate than Virginia was our neighbor in the character of her Legislators.

The constitutional amendment abolishing slavery was adopted, but with the wise State rights qualification, "that it did not enlarge the powers of Congress to legislate in behalf of the freedmen within the limits of the State."

The usury law was amended, and now allows persons loaning money to charge nine per cent. interest, in case of regular contracts.

An act also was passed which undoubtedly contemplates the regaining by the State, of large amounts of property which have fallen into the clutches of greedy Treasury agents, those unscrupulous harpies who seem to have no friends nor defenders.

The Legislature of North Carolina was permitted to pass a "vagrant act," which makes no distinction on account of color. It makes it the duty of any Justice of the Peace, upon proof of any person who may be able to labor, and has no apparent means of subsistence, and neglects to apply himself to some honest occupation for the support of himself and family, if he has one, or be found spending his time in dissipation, or gaming, or sauntering about without employment, or endeavoring to get support by any undue or unlawful means, to issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, to be brought before some Justice of the Peace, and if found to be a vagrant, to recognize him with good security for his appearance at the next term of the Court next succeeding, and upon failure to give bond, to be imprisoned until Court; provided he may at the Court give bond and security for good behavior and industious deportment for one year, and be discharged; but if he fail to give bond and pay cost, he shall be prosecuted, and upon conviction, the Court may fine or imprison him, or both, or sentence him to the workhouse for such time as the Court may think fit.

The Legislature did not forget the poor Confederate soldiers of North Carolina, but made provision for their support in cases of disability from loss of limbs, and for the purchase of artificial legs and arms. The preamble of the resolution making the appropriation for this purpose, as it was originally introduced, recited that "whereas our brave soldiers enlisted to fight in the defence of the State, and that they were patriots," &c. A resolution on this subject was also passed, authorizing the authorities of each county in the State to levy taxes for the support of disabled soldiers in their respective counties. God bless the "Old North State" for this noble, bold and timely charity!

The Tribune and other Radical papers, having talked a vast deal of treasonable nonsense about the calling in each of the Southern States, of a convention to overthrow the existing State governments, the fearless North Carolina Legislature passed an act for the special delectation of all such "traitors and rebels."

The act provides that any person guilty of seditious language, spoken, written or printed, or endeavoring to incite insurrection, conspiracy, sedition or rebellion against the government of the State, shall stand in the pillory one hour, receive one or more public whippings, not less than thirty-nine lashes each, and be imprisoned twelve months, and punishes with death any person found guilty of rebellion or insurrection, or inciting others to join him or them.

Gentlemen who are ambitious of disturbing the President's work of State reconstruction in North Carolina will be very speedily confronted with the "pillory," "whipping post," and receive the good old Mosaic dispensation of "thirty-nine." A large number of acts were also passed providing for the changes which have taken place in the condition of the negro. These relate to the education, contracts for labor, punishment, &c., of the emancipated slaves, and seem to be wise and timely.

From the commencement to the end of the late session, the North Carolina Legislature appears to have worked with an industry, practical wisdom and manly independence, which cannot be too highly commended.

[We copy the foregoing from the Richmond Times. Our cotemporary has fallen into a slight error with regard to the amendment of the usury law. Under the new Act parties are allowed to contract specially at a rate not exceeding 8 per cent., instead of 9, as stated. We think the Legislature would have done well to have allowed even a little higher rate, in case of regular contracts.]

SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, held in Portsmouth, on the 20th instant, William L. Savage, of Philadelphia, was elected President, and the following gentlemen directors: Nalbro Frazie and Moncure Robison, of Philadelphia; George M. Vickers, of Baltimore; John M. Robinson and Richmond Walke, of Virginia; and David A. Barnes, of North Carolina.

John M. Robinson was appointed General Superintendent, J. B. Pendleton, Superintendent of Machine Shops, Richard Walke, Secretary and Treasurer, S. T. Hand, Superintendent of Roads and Bridges. The business of the road is flourishing and its travel and freight, it is expected, will be much increased so soon as the Weldon bridge shall be completed, which will be about the first of April.

The Wilmington Herald has suspended publication. This leaves an open field to the two spirited and well-conducted journals now published there—the Journal and Dispatch.

GOLD closed in New York, on the 27th, at 126¼.

COTTON had a declining tendency on the 27th, with sales of 200 bales at 39 @ 40 cents.—Wheat and Flour were also considerably lower.

LATER.—Private advices from New York inform us that the steamer from Europe is in, and that cotton had advanced one penny.

The Second Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that the claims against the Government of persons domiciled in the Southern States before and during the war, now presented for payment, are not lawfully entitled to liquidation. He thinks that the laws of nations, and of Congress and the decisions of the Supreme Court justify this opinion.

The President and the Test Oath.

President Johnson is either in favor of the "Test Oath," or he is opposed to it.

Certain politicians in North Carolina affirm, that he favors the oath, and that so long as the people of the South shall send men to Congress who cannot take it, they need not expect to be represented. It is true these men preach, but they do not practice. They voted in the last election, in every instance, except in the mountain District, and the very few who voted for "Test Oath" men in this District, for men who could not take the oath, and will do so in all future elections; because, if for no other reason, they cannot find the men who have the slightest qualifications to fitness who can take this "Test Oath."

The President is fully aware of the difficulties which surround this question—in his own appointments of Provisional Governors, and other officers, he has in no case made his selections from those who can take this obnoxious oath—with him present loyalty to the Government and Constitution is all that is required. It is true, he has not been as explicit in his language upon this question as some of us may have desired, but he has said enough, when taken in connection with his appointments, to show to all who desire to know the truth, what his opinions are.

The President knows that the question of the qualification of members is clearly left by the Constitution to each House of Congress; and he does not feel at liberty to urge upon the Legislative branch of the Government his own peculiar views upon a subject which is not one which belongs, in any manner, to the Executive.

We cannot see how any one can hesitate to believe that President Johnson is opposed to adding any qualification to those prescribed in the Constitution, after reading his message vetoing the bill to extend the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau, and his speech delivered in Washington the 22nd of February last; but if the language there used is not sufficiently explicit, we commend to these sceptics an attentive reading of the following language addressed to the Virginia delegation:

THE TEST OATH.—The President in response to the Virginia delegation who recently visited him and called forth his views on this important question, thus definitely states his position:

He who comes as a representative, having the qualification prescribed by the Constitution to fit him to take a seat in either of the deliberative bodies which constitute the National Legislature, must necessarily, according to the intent of the Constitution, be a loyal man, willing to abide by and be devoted to the Union and the Constitution of the States. He can not be for the Constitution, he cannot be for the Union, cannot acknowledge obedience to all the laws, unless he is loyal. When the people send such men, in good faith, they are entitled to representation through them.

The fact that President Johnson has not required this Test Oath of any of his appointees in the Southern States, (taken in connection with this language,) clearly demonstrates that he believes, that all that should be asked of any one elected to office, is present loyalty to the Government and Constitution of the United States, and a determination, honestly, to abide the terms of amnesty accepted by them. Loyalty for the four years intervening between 1861 and 1865, he neither expects nor requires.

Goldsboro News.

The filthy-mouthed Brownlow, of Tennessee, has addressed a letter to Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, the negro-suffrage member of Congress from Philadelphia, in which he bitterly denounces President Johnson and his great restoration policy, and represents the condition of Tennessee as extremely deplorable. The letter is to us the source of a two-fold pleasure. In the first place, the very fact that Brownlow denounces the President and his policy is strong evidence in itself that both the President and his policy are wise and just; and secondly, the fact that the people of Tennessee are not acting in accordance with Brownlow's wishes proves conclusively that they are acting just as a patriotic people should. We should greatly suspect the propriety of any measure which Brownlow approved, and question the integrity of any people that Brownlow praised.

It has been our rule for many years, when reading anything from the pen of this consummate humbug, to reverse every statement made by him, in order to reach the truth. He has never been known to state a fact or a principle correctly. The intense hatred and contempt in which his peculiar followers in Tennessee are held by the people, are deserved to the fullest extent. They are entitled to the unmitigated scorn of every honest man in the State.—Prentice, of the Louisville Journal.

Monstrous.

"It is monstrous that four millions of people, who have been free and independent, should be deprived of the right to vote for no better reason than the color of their skin." So said Mr. Hart, of this State, in the debate in the House, last Saturday, on the reconstruction question, and we concur entirely in the sentiment, though we differ from Mr. H. in the practical application of it. It is totally inapplicable to the negroes of the South—who, by the way, do not number four millions, nor any thing like it—for they have never heretofore been "free and independent," and, as they have never heretofore had the right to vote, it is not easy to comprehend how they can be "deprived" of such right. But there are men at the South, more than four millions of whites, "who have been free and independent," and who are actually disfranchised by the action of Mr. Hart and his coadjutors, for no better reason that we can see, than the color of their skin. And it is unquestionably "monstrous" that this should be so. Perhaps, after all, this is what Mr. Hart meant.—N. Y. News.

We have but barely room to call attention to the attack of the Standard upon Mr. Covington, Senator from this District, and other gentlemen, for the course they saw proper to pursue in voting for Speaker of the Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Settle; and the defence of those gentlemen by the Raleigh Sentinel and Charlotte Times. Mr. Covington's course, so far as we have the means of ascertaining, is most emphatically approved by his constituents. The Standard gains nothing in this section by charging either Mr. C. or his supporters as "secessionists." The Standard's tactics are pretty well understood hereabouts, and its charges of any kind are estimated according.—Wadesborough Argus.

The President's Message to the Governor of Texas.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The President's message to Governor Hamilton, of Texas, in which he reiterates the hope that the loyal Representatives from the South shall be admitted to their seats in Congress, is published. It bears date February 18.

When Sir Walter Scott was urged not to prop the falling credit of an acquaintance, he replied, "The man was my friend when my friends were few; and I will be his, now that his enemies are many."

MARRIED,

In Washington, N. C., on the 20th inst., Mr. GEORGE JONES, of Goldsboro', to Miss SALLIE B. RICHARDS, of Washington.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We omitted, on yesterday, to direct attention to the announcement of Rev. Alex. Wilson's school at Melville. The Dr's name is a "household word" in this State, and needs no endorsement. His associate, Dr. Jno. Wilson, is also a gentleman of experience and fine scholastic attainments.

Worth & Daniel, Agents, Wilmington, advertise the Philadelphia & Southern Steamship Mail Company—a new and important enterprise. We invite the special attention of our merchants to the advertisement.

Patrick Murphy, Esq., of Sampson, returns his thanks to the ladies, and others, for their kindness and attention during his protracted and critical illness. We are greatly gratified at being able to assure Mr. Murphy's numerous friends, that he is steadily convalescing.

B. P. Williamson & Co., advertise fresh ground Family Flour, of fine quality, and, also, scythes and scythe-blades.

BURGLARIES.—After a considerable lull in their operations, the night-thieves have again commenced work. The store of Mr. John C. Palmer was entered on Tuesday night, and a number of valuable articles,—spoons, jewelry, &c.,—abstracted. On the same night an unsuccessful effort was made to break into the store of Messrs. Hart & Lewis. The door was chiselled in several places. Let our city police be on the alert!

PEACHES KILLED.—The severity of the weather has been such, for several days past, that nearly all the peach blooms in this latitude have been killed. This will be a severe deprivation. The apples are safe as yet.

FATAL RENCONTRE IN ELIZABETH CITY.—Mr. William H. Weatherley, of Elizabeth City, got into a difficulty one day last week with a Mr. Trafton, of Camden County, which resulted in the death of the latter. It appears that at the beginning of the difficulty, Mr. Weatherley, who was whittling with a pen-knife, was pushed by Mr. Trafton against a cart, and in attempting to push him off, his knife entered the lower part of the abdomen. Mr. W. told Mr. Trafton that he was bleeding, and that he did not intend to stick the knife in him, and offered to procure medical assistance, which he did. For two days the Doctor did not think the wound dangerous. But the incision being so small the blood could not escape, and he died from internal hemorrhage.

Mr. Weatherley was bailed in the sum of $1,000.

EX-GOV. VANCE has associated himself in the practice of the law, in Charlotte, with Messrs. Dowd and Johnston.

THE FIRE IN WILMINGTON.—The Wilmington papers contain full accounts of the destructive conflagration in Wilmington, alluded to in our news column on yesterday. The houses of Mrs. Langdon, Alfred Martin, Esq., W. H. Northrop, Esq., W. S. Anderson, Esq., S. R. Bunting, Esq., J. J. Connelly, Esq., and all the out-houses, stables, &c., were completely destroyed. Some of the above named persons were so fortunate to have had their residences insured. We have not heard what the loss is estimated at, but it was very heavy.

A gentleman who resides in the country says he can smell the town by the time he arrives within a half mile of the limits of its Corporation. We are not much inclined to doubt the veracity of this gentleman, as he is acknowledged to be perfectly reliable, but we must say that he undoubtedly possesses olfactories of an extraordinary cast.—Salisbury Banner.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Capt. Frank Waddell, a brother of the late commander of the Shenandoah, met with a serious accident in Wilmington, on Saturday last. He was attending to the shipment of some freights, and unfortunately was caught between the platform and one of the cars, and very seriously injured. As is usual with such accidents, the injury is internal, and it is impossible now to determine what may be the result. His condition, yesterday, however, (says the Dispatch,) was somewhat improved, and strong hopes are entertained of his recovery.

OUTRAGE.—We learn from the Richmond Examiner, that the messenger of the Southern Express Company, who passed through Weldon, North Carolina, on Saturday, reports that, when within twenty miles of Weldon, the train running slowly and ahead of time, a couple of negroes were noticed ahead. As the train passed them, one of the negroes, who held a piece of railroad iron in his hand, hurled it with great violence through the window of one of the coaches, the missile narrowly escaping the heads of several of the passengers. The train was stopped, and two of the passengers jumped out and pursued the black rascals for nearly a half mile, but they ran with great fleetness, and it was with great difficulty that one of them was captured. The train was backed, and the negro taken into the baggage car. He was then stripped, and had several lashes well laid on his back by some of the passengers, one of whom was a Federal soldier.

COL. FRED. C. HILL advertises, in the Wilmington papers, for a situation. During the session of the recent Legislature, Col. H. had editorial control of the Journal of that city, discharging the duties of the position in a highly acceptable manner. We speak from intimate personal acquaintance when we say, that he will faithfully and most intelligently fill any situation that he may obtain.

Mathias E. Boger, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster for Statesville, and entered upon the duties of his office.

GENERAL NEWS.

The stock market, including governments, was firm yesterday. Gold weakened to 124¼, but closed at 125¼@125¾.

The continued depression in the gold market yesterday checked large transactions and served in many cases to further reduce the current prices particularly for foreign marchandise. Prices, for sugar were somewhat in buyer's favor, while the sales were comparatively large. Coffee was without buyers, and prices were nominal. Cotton was extremely dull at declining rates.—On 'Change the markets generally were irregular. Flour was decidedly lower. Wheat and corn were also in buyer's favor.—N. Y. Herald, 26th.

THE DEAD DUCK COMING TO GRIEF.—The Secretary of the Senate shows grief. Earlier in the session he would trip lightly through the Capitol passages from the Senate to the lower House, appear inside the bar of the House and lay a message from the Senate before Mr. Speaker, with a loud voice, a smile, creased countenance and an advanced stomach. Latterly, however, when he appears he appears dejected. He mumbles in a faint voice the titles of the papers which he holds in his hat, and slides sorrowfully away to a sofa in the lobby for a few moments' interchange of woes with the sepulchral Kelley or the ghostly Broomall. His loss of voice, stomach and spirit occasions remark in the galleries, among reporters and others, who like to catch the titles of Senate bills and to commiserate "the duck with the weak quack."—Washington correspondent New York Herald, 22d.

THE LOAN BILL.—Secretary McCulloch, it is said, is in good spirits over the passage of the loan or resumption bill by the House.—Half of the battle is won, as he considers, by the adoption of a fixed policy looking to a contraction and ultimate resumption. Besides, Congress may, at the next session, give additional powers, if necessary.

The President has expressed his disapproval of Mr. Stewart's proposition for a universal amnesty on condition of the establishment of free suffrage.

The State Department has advices from our Consuls in France, showing that the cholera which abated in Cherbourg and Brent, in February, was a mild type, and confined to the poorer classes, and that, in fact, it had been greatly exaggerated.

JOHNSTON COUNTY LAND FOR SALE.

I offer for sale the two tracts of land known as the Zack Hill place, three and a half miles from Boon Hill, and on the Road to Lowell Factory, containing in both 221 acres. The improvements are a log dwelling house, smoke house, and stables, and a good well of water. The land is desirable for cultivation as it is immediately upon Little River, where can be found any amount of the richest loam; and also very valuable for its pine forest, only a small quantity of which has been boxed, and will yield a crop of Turpentine the present year.

A good bargain may be had, as the proprietor is disposed to sell it cheap for cash.

LANCASTER'S COTTON SEED PLANTER.

THE BEST MACHINE EVER INVENTED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Several hundred Sold in the Cotton growing counties in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia, in the three years preceding the war.

A NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION!

The Sacredness of Cotton Seed

Should induce every one intending to plant cotton the ensuing season, to use this machine. It embraces the following points, which are fully attested in the numerous testimonials given by those who used it in 18 9—'65:

1st. Perfect Simplicity. The seed are carried out of the Hopper by a grooved cylinder—which cylinder is turned by two light wheels rolling upon the ground. It has no cog wheels, bands, chains or anything to get out of order. It has in addition a furrow opener, in which furrow the Seed fall at a depth of one inch or less, and the furrow is covered up by a board or wheel or roller, as the operator may prefer.

2d. It sows with great regularity and precision if the Seed are well rubbed, and it a very narrow furrow, rendering the chopping out and subsequent cultivation very easy work, compared with that when follow hand planting.

3d. It is a great saver of Seed, being able to secure a good stand with half the quantity of Seed usually required in hand planting, and this should be an important consideration.

4th. Its perfect adaptation to negro management is its crowning excellence and many of the testimonials refer to this very desirable feature.

5th. Its lightness, both to team and hand, and its cheapness together with its simplicity in construction, rendering it easy of repair by any farm hand, are strong points in its favor and are not combined in any other Cotton Planter known to the Inventor of this

☞ Circulars giving full particulars, together with numerous testimonials from those who have the machine to-day this machine, will be furnished upon application by mail or otherwise.

Full directions go with each machine, although the Planter is so simple as really not to require them. It may be necessary to say that this machine will sow rubbed seed only.

When more convenient to the purchaser, we will ship from New York, the freight from thence to Newbern and Wilmington, being about one dollar each by steamer. The freight per Railroad from Norfolk to Goldsboro, or Raleigh, is also about one dollar each. Persons living beyond these points can calculate for greater distances.

The Machines are sold at Thirty Dollars each, delivered on Vessel or Railroad in Norfolk or New York, and Cash or Sight Drafts must accompany each order. Orders promptly filled for any number of machines.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have also fully shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activity of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of ever body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time in dimin ished dose the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its vital organs.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

PHILOMATHESIAN HALL,
WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C.
March 24th, 1866.

At a Meeting of the Philomathesian Society, March 23rd, 1866, the Following Resolutions were Adopted.

WHEREAS, during the late war with the United States, a large number of the members of this Association have laid down their lives, in obedience to the call of their country; and have, by their self denial, their devotion to principle and their constancy in the hour of trial, earned a place among the heroes and martyrs of history; therefore,

Resolved, That we will ever cherish the memories of our gallant brethren who have fallen in defence of their homes, their altars, and their firesides—of the land they loved, and the liberties they inherited; and that we will assiduously collect, and record in a book, entitled the "Memorial," such authentic sketches, biographical notices, and other reminiscences of our lamented associates, as shall be alike interesting to the living and honorable to the dead.

Resolved, That in promotion of the object the relatives and friends of the deceased be, and they are hereby requested, to communicate to us any information in their possession, or within their reach; and that the members of the Society throughout the country are earnestly solicited to interest themselves in collecting and forwarding materials for the "Memorial."

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

Confederate Military Chieftains.

A NORTHERN ESTIMATE OF THEIR GENIUS—TRIBUTE TO THE ABILITIES OF DAVIS, LEE, STUART AND JOHNSON, FROM THE PEN OF A UNITED STATES OFFICER.

From a long review of the late war, published in the New York Citizen, a Republican journal, edited by Col. Halpine, better known as Private Miles O'Reilly, late of the United States army, we extract the following estimate of Southern Chieftains:

DAVIS.

Let those loyal gentlemen, disciples of Mr. Abbott, who worship the character of Bonaparte, make some consistent homage to the brilliant directory of Jefferson Davis. Both were men of destiny, and the personnel of the survivor is far the nobler. Of the fallen angels whose dark plumage swept from our Senate Halls, he made the most courtly adieu. Of all the traitors he was the most entirely in earnest. Of all decision, his was the sagest, the promptest and the most enduring. He only of the conspirators felt that his quarrel with the Union was irreconcilable, and has never yet advised submission. His captivity has been belittled by none of Bonaparte's querulousness. Blind, and grey, and wasted, his dominions are narrowed to the casemate, while the Republic he would overthrow reaches to the silent oceans.

LEE.

In Robert Lee the same austere Providence, to purify our Republicanism, shattered our faith in traditional respectability. The heir of Washington went with the rest of the new chivalry, and with ten times the talent of the great Fabius, crushed the armies of our lesser respectabilities, till he met in Grant a man without a pedigree. He was the equal of Wellington in manœuvring great bodies of troops upon small interior lines. The Duke at Waterloo fought his whole army upon a mile and a quarter arc; but Lee, at Cold Harbor, for five days presented a solid line of battle wherever we sought for him, till his whole force seemed manœuvred by the wink of his eye, and every salient that we touched was a corps. While the fortifications of Richmond stand, his name shall evoke admiration. The art of war is unacquainted with any defense so admirable. Splendid as were the triumps of his engineering, the victories of his infantry were his best monuments. But over the glory of his talent fell a shadow as eternal as his memory—the frown of a resolute Democracy, whose sacrifice was longer than his art.

STUART.

I stood in the cemetery of Hollywood, at the grave of Stuart—a space without a shaft. He revolutionized the cavalry tactics of our time, and was in dash and dissoluteness the Prince Rupert of the West. Forrest and Stoneman, Morgan and Grierson, Mosby and Kilpatrick were his imitators. He inaugurated the grand raid which taught Sheridan the nothingness of distance and emboldened Sherman to tear the continent like a pocket map.

The fervid imagination of the Southern people, demonstrated in feats of romance, like Stuart's, made them, during the war, the great suggestive captains. They built the first iron-clad, made the first great rides, and under Stonewall Jackson executed the earliest of the great infantry marches. But the colder adaptability of the North developed every hint from the South into a perfect system. The experiment of the Merrimac has grown to the Dictator, the Dunderberg and Ironsides. The engineering assiduity of Beauregard, imitated by the North, has marked the camps of our armies as if the protecting mountains had followed our columns.—But it may be doubted that any division commander has yet arisen to rival the splendid infantry genius of Jackson.

JACKSON.

As Lee was master of manœuvre, Jackson was the great captain of aggressive warfare. He combined the cunning and the boldness of Napoleon. To cover his great movement by the flank in 1862, he did not hesitate to fight Pope's whole army with a division, and the celerity of his march up the Shenandoah, to appear again on the field of Bull Run, was only equalled by the energy of his attack. He moved infantry with the speed of horse, and having hurled three great commanders back from the Old Dominion, died before the lustre of its arms had diminished in that flush of victory when rebellion had assumed, indeed, the proportions of a nation. He was the most republican of rebels, stern and simple as any Roundhead, and this is why we hold his memory greener than that of his companions whose defection to the Union was augmented by their treason to popular institutions.

There were other personages identified with this grand historical defence, but these are the great statues—Davis, Lee, Jackson, Stuart, Beauregard.

LAST FOND LOOKS.—When a lady (we are talking of a lady in the full height and breadth of fashion) has got her bonnet and gloves on, and is perfectly ready with her parasol in hand, she always goes back to the looking-glass to take a last fond look. Upon asking "a dear handsome duchess" if this were not the truth, and the beautiful truth, she had the charming candor to state:

"Yes, my dear Punch, it is the truth, but not all the truth. No woman, take my word for it, is satisfied with one look. At least, I know that I am not, for (and here she laughed as though she was pleased with herself and all the world) I don't mind telling you, I invariably take four, four good ones. The first look in the glass is for myself, that's fair; the second look is for my husband, that's nothing but just; the third is for my friends, that's only generous; and the fourth is for my rivals, that's human nature. If the last look satisfies me, then I know it is all right, and I assure you I never take any more!" London Punch.

Mr. O'Flaherty undertook to tell how many were at the party;

"The two Crogans was one, myself was two, Mike Finn was three, and—and—who the deuce was four! Let me see (counting his fingers,) the two Crogans was one, Mike Finn was two, myself was three, and—bedad, there was four of us, but St. Patrick couldn't tell the name of the other. Now it's meself that has it. Mike Finn was one, the two Crogans was two, meself was three, and—by my soul, I think there was but three of us after all."

Said a crazy woman, of a penurious, stingy man, an officer of the church, we regret to say, "Do you see that man? You can blow his soul through a humming bird's quill into a mosquito's eye, and the mosquito wouldn't wink!"

"How do you define as 'black as your hat!'" said a schoolmaster to one of his pupils.—"Darkness that may be 'felt,'" replied the youthful wit.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $4,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $500, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, also of the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,684,339 57, total disbursements $527 895 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,153 2 4 33.
In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.
In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COPARTNERSHIP.
NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.
WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of Whitford, Dill & Co.,
for the transaction of a Shipping and General Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.
To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandize, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.
We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.
☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.
All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR
WARRANTED GENUINE.
BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.
We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.
Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:
"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E F Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, as the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.
"We would state that, after careful examination we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,
"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,
"No. 191 Water street, New York."

E. FRANK COE, ESQ.,
Annexed please find result of my analysis of sample of your Super Phosphate of Lime left with me. This being such a superior article in every respect, I cannot refrain from congratulating you upon such a manufacture, which undoubtedly will meet with great success.
Wishing you every success, I am,
Respectfully yours,
G. A. LEIBIG.

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 1-120-3m.

CIRCULAR.
The Co-partnership of G. W. DEEMS & C. F. DEEMS has been dissolved, by mutual consent, and the business of manufacturing the Southern has gone into the hands of G. W. DEEMS, the discoverer, who has removed to Baltimore, Md., where he can have access to the purest and best Medicines, on the most favorable terms. He will always keep on hand a large supply, and will sell to his customers, wholesale and retail, at the shortest notice.
Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been circulated so extensively, they need no recommendation—their merits are so well known by their results.
We thank our customers for the liberal patronage given us heretofore, and hope they will continue to favor us by sending their orders to G. W. DEEMS, No 28 South Calhoun Street, Baltimore, Md., where they will be promptly attended to, the cash accompanying the orders. Price 30 cts. per box; $2.50 per dozen, and a liberal discount to dealers.
For sale by P. F. PESCUD, and WILLIAMS & HAYWOOD
